

BY THE NUMBERS

CALS STUDENTS

- 5,333 students, both undergraduate and graduate (62 fewer than Fall 2016)
- 62% higher than 10 years ago
- 4,603 undergraduates
- 495—Record number of U.S. multicultural students (self-reported) 187% increase over 10 years ago
- 730 graduate students

3RD largest undergraduate student body among agricultural colleges in the nation

BUILDING PROFESSIONALS

1,160 | bachelor of science degrees awarded last year (49% more than 5 years ago)

98% | grads placed within 6 months of graduation

STEWARDSHIP SUCCESS

of new CALS students returned to campus

stayed in CALS majors

EXTERNAL DOLLARS

brought in by faculty supported by CALS and the Agriculture Experiment Station last year over past 5 years

FOREVER TRUE: INVESTING IN EXCELLENCE

- $30 million raised last year
- 4,500+ alumni, friends and supporters provided gifts
- $14M gifts to feed mill and grain science center
  - Kent Corporation, $8 million
  - Iowa Corn Promotion Board, $4 million
  - Sukup Manufacturing Company, $2 million
- $1M gift from the Roger and Connie Underwood Family Foundation to support ag entrepreneurship and ag business programs
- Kemins Food Science Laboratory renovation
  - Mary A. Kelleher Nelson and R.W. Nelson
  - Kemins Industries